Mount Dora Yacht Club Reciprocity Policy & Guidelines

The Mount Dora Yacht Club is a private, member-owned club. We are happy to extend limited reciprocal privileges to members in good standing of other recognized yacht clubs when visiting our area by water or land. Reciprocity is offered strictly for social use of the clubhouse.

1. Eligibility

- Visitor must be a full member in good standing of a recognized yacht club and present a current membership card upon request. A letter of reference from the club manager may be requested.
- A maximum of 3 additional guests is allowed.

2. Clubhouse Access Under Reciprocity

- Reciprocal guests are welcome on:
    - Thursdays – Dinner service (typically 6:00 pm – 8:00 pm)
    - Fridays – Burgee Bar night (typically 5:00 pm – 8:00 pm)
- The club is otherwise closed to non-members; reciprocity does not grant access on any other days or for private events.
- Special events may be excluded.
- Please call ahead to ensure availability.

3. Reservations

- Advance reservations are required for Thursday dinner.
- Reservations must be made at least 5 days in advance by emailing manager@mountdorayachtclub.com or calling the club.
- Walk-ins on Friday Burgee Bar night are welcome, if capacity allows.

4. Facilities Available to Reciprocal Guests

- Use of the clubhouse, bar, and dining room during normal Thursday dinner and Friday bar hours.
- Reservations are required for Thursday night dinners, which have maximum limits and require reservations.
- Guests may attend dinners no more than 3 times per year and no more than once per month.

5. Facilities & Privileges NOT Available to Reciprocal Guests

- No dock, moorage, or waterfront access.
- No parking – Reciprocal privileges do not include use of the club parking lot. Visitors must use public street parking or nearby public lots only.
- No access on days other than Thursday dinner and Friday bar.
- No attendance at member-only events.

6. Check-In & Conduct

- All reciprocal guests must check in with the manager upon arrival and present a current membership card from their club.
- Dinners must be paid for at check-in by credit card.
- Visitors and their guests are expected to follow all club rules, including dress code (check with manager in advance) and behavior standards.
- The club reserves the right to refuse or revoke reciprocity privileges at any time.

7. Clubs We Honor

We extend reciprocity to members of clubs that offer equivalent privileges to our members. This includes members of Yachting Club of America and certain clubs in the Florida Council of Yacht Clubs.

We appreciate your visit and look forward to visiting your club in the future!
